CARRANZA IS CAUSE OF DELAY

Benton Probe Commission Not Allowed to Proceed to Chihuahua City

ENGLAND LEAVES CASE IN HANDS OF UNITED STATES

Rebels Capture Lampasas With Rout of Federals—Tales of Executions Told

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Regard less of pressure within or without, the administration's "watchful waiting" policy as regards Mexico will continue, President Wilson told callers to day. He said the majority who demand that something be done do not appreciate that they "must contribute brothers, sons or sweethearts in the event of immediate action, while if we wait the same results will be obtained without the sacrifice of life."

He said General Carranza's attitude was not serious, but that he merely desires the dignity of his position recognized. He explained that the Benton expedition to Chihuahua City had merely been delayed pending Carranza's approval. The president said England will not communicate with Carranza regarding Benton since such tantamount recognition.

The British government, the president said, will leave the Benton matter entirely in America's hands. Carranza, who suggested that England act directly, has been told that America, acting in compliance with the British request, is preparing to prosecute the investigation. The president is hopeful that General Carranza will agree to the investigation.

BENTON INVESTIGATING PARTY HALTED AT EL PASO

EL PASO, March 2.—American Consul Letcher of Chihuahua arrived here today on a special train. He conferred secretly with George C. Carruthers of the U. S. state department, and Chas. A. G. Perceval, British consul at Galveston. Details of the conference were withheld here. It is supposed the refusal of the Benton commission to start for Chihuahua City, where Benton's body is said to be buried.

Personnel of Commission
The trip of the Benton Investigation Commission to Chihuahua was suddenly postponed or abandoned yesterday shortly before the commissioners were about to take the train.

The commissioners, with their luggage, were at the train in Juarez where they were notified not to go. The commissioners are Charles A. G. Perceval, British consul at Galveston, and James Hambleton, a British subject long resident in Mexico, appointed by Perceval; R. E. Thomas, a lawyer of this city, who has made a special study of international and Mexican law; Dr. R. M. Davidson and C. J. P. Many of the army.

REBELS CAPTURE LAMPASAS AFTER BLOODY BATTLE

BROWNVILLE, Texas, March 2.—That the rebels have captured Lampasas, Chihuahua, after a bloody battle in which the federals were routed completely, was announced in messages received here today. Other messages state that the rebels captured a detachment of federals at Rodriguez, including three officers, who were executed.

MEXICAN MILLIONAIRE RESTORED TO RIGHTS

NOGALES, Sonora, March 2.—After being in exile for a year, Manuel Masoarenas, a multi-millionaire cattle baron, was restored to his Mexican rights today by General Carranza upon an agreement to pay $1000 monthly into the Constitutional treasury. Masoarenas was regarded as the wealthiest man in Northern Mexico except Luis Terrazas. He owns thousands of acres and is now with his family in San Francisco.

FEAR TROUBLE AT MURDER TRIAL TODAY

ELEKTON, Md., March 2.—Every precaution to protect the prisoners, two negroes, said to have confessed to the killing of H. T. Coleman in December, was taken when the men went to trial here today. The men were removed here from Chestertown following their arrest after a mob had three times stormed the jail, and began a search for the negroes in the lower tiers of cells when the sheriff and twenty deputies drove the mob back. Two hundred militiamen accompanied the prisoners here. Judge Adkinson was on the bench today.

CAR STRIKES SAND, SKIDS, TURNS OVER

Charles Fipps and Party Thrown Out of Machine But Escape Injury

Accident Occurred on Santa Clara Avenue Near Hannah Street

On returning yesterday afternoon from the county poor farm, where he had gone after his mother and four girls of the Christian Church Intermediate Society, Charles Fipps ran into a sand pile while trying to pass another machine and overturned his Ford car, throwing out the occupants. The accident occurred on Santa Clara avenue just after the Fipps party had turned off of Hannah street, at about five in the afternoon. Although Fipps was traveling at the rate of twenty-five miles per hour and the machine turned completely over, none of the party was injured, except Mrs. Walter Fipps, whose arm was slightly bruised.

REPORTER WHO SAW MORE OF THE WAR SECRETARY

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The secretary of war is continually amused and sometimes annoyed by the persistence of newspaper men. He is rather new to public life and sometimes it gets on his nerves.
"The man who takes the prize for persistence, though," Garrison said recently, "is one I met while in Portland, Oregon. After a hot, dusty journey, I arrived at my hotel early in the morning, and as quickly as possible got into a bath. I heard someone walking around in my room. Attired in absolutely nothing, I burst out of the bathroom, and there was a perfect stranger, roaming about my room. He said he was looking for the secretary of war, and was sorry to have disturbed me. I was pretty tired and dusty and short tempered, but the reporter (for such he was) amused me. 'You've seen more of him than any other newspaper man I know,' I told him. 'Now suppose you look somewhere else for him while I finish my bath.'"

NATIONAL TRACK CHAMPIONSHIP TONIGHT

NEW YORK, March 2.—A majority of the best field and track athletes in the east and west were entered in tonight's national indoor track and field championships of America to be held in Madison Square Garden. The games are to indoor and field and track athletes what the world's series is to the baseball world. The list of champions entered is as long as the Congressional Record.

WRECK ATTEMPT SAFETY PLAN ON REDONDO P. E. LINE

Lives of 200 Passengers Saved by Slowing Because of Broken Trolley Wire

Question as to Filing City Nomination Papers for Verification

OBSTRUCTIONS ON LINE MILE FROM PLAYA DEL REY

Company Offers $500 Reward; Other Rewards Likely to Be Forthcoming

LOS ANGELES, March 2.—Scores of detectives are searching for the men who tried to wreck a Pacific Electric train on the Redondo Beach line last night with two hundred people aboard. The Pacific Electric railroad officials have offered $500 reward for the capture and conviction of the miscreants. This sum is likely to be increased by the road's department heads who have been called in conference this afternoon as a result of frequent attempts to wreck Pacific Electric trains. The officials believe the work is that of some men who have a grievance against the company.

The attempt made at 5:55 o'clock last evening to wreck a two-car electric train filled with passengers on the Los Angeles-Redondo Beach line, was prevented because a purposely broken trolley wire caused the motor man to proceed slowly. Because of this precaution, obstructions piled on the track were discovered in time, and the train brought to a standstill, thus saving the passengers' lives.

Had the train been going at the usual rate of speed, it would have crashed into the obstructions, any one of which would have been sufficient to have caused a complete wreck.

The attempt to wreck the car was made about a mile from Playa del Rey. A pile of ties had been placed on the track in crib formation. Ten feet distant a large saw-horse was laid across the rails. Ten feet beyond that a rail was stretched across the tracks and ten feet farther a heavy track jack was found upon the rails. Just at this point the railroad passes through a cut at the end of which is a curve and a thirty-foot fill. It was just beyond the cut and out of sight beyond the curve that the obstructions were piled.

MAN IS ROBBED $435 MEXICAN MONEY

Two Men Kept Him Quiet With Guns While Third Cut Out the Pocket

Pablo Macias, who lives in a shack on L. E. Smith's ranch at West Orange, was robbed of $435 in Mexican coin last night. Last November he thought of going to Mexico, and got his American money changed to Mex. At San Diego he changed his mind, and returned here. He has been carrying the Mexican money in his overalls pocket. Last night three Mexicans, who talked as though they knew about the coin, broke into his shack. Two held revolvers on him while the third used a knife in cutting the precious pocket out of the overalls.

KINGS' DAUGHTERS WAITRESSES

CLEVELAND, March 2.—Prominent women here, members of the Kings' Daughters' Society, today worked as waitresses at Central Armory serving meals as a feature of the second annual American Woman's Exposition to raise funds for working girls' vacations. The working girls, many of them employed by today's "waitresses," will be taken on their annual vacation camping trip to Rock Lodge under the protecting wing of the Kings' Daughters' Society.

STYLE SHOW ON

CLEVELAND, March 2.—Style show week opened in Cleveland today. Under the direction of the Retail Merchants' Board style show week has become an annual event in Cleveland. Live models paraded the downtown stores and in some stores appeared in windows. The stores vied with each other in unique and artistic window decorations. A statewide advertising campaign conducted by the stores jointly was expected to bring many out-of-town buyers to Cleveland.

DEMOCRATS URGE THAT AHLBORN BE APPOINTED AT ANAHEIM FORTHWITH

Somewhat at a loss to know why a Democrat has not been appointed as postmaster at Anaheim, the Democratic County Central Committee on Saturday passed a resolution that the Republican's term is now up and that the Democrats think a Democrat ought to be appointed forthwith.

A resolution was addressed to the President of the United States, to the Postmaster General and to Congressmen Kettner, and the greatest of these so far as the Anaheim post-office is concerned is Congressman Kettner.

The Democrats all say that Kettner can land any of the postoffice appointments in his district that he wants to land. In some instances he has had considerable difficulty in making a recommendation, but it seems that his recommendations have all gone through.

In view of that state of affairs the Anaheim Democrats who are backing J. Frederick Ahlborn for the appointment to succeed J. W. Duckworth could not see why nothing had been done. They began to worry lest Duckworth, who supported Kettner in the last election, might retain the position. Of the Republican postmasters in the county, Duckworth is the only one so far who has made any effort to secure re-appointment under the Democratic administration.

The central committee meeting Saturday was called largely at the suggestion of the Anaheim committeemen. Duckworth's term is now up, and nothing has been done. It was thought time to see if the central committee could not get something done.

At the meeting Saturday Henry M. Adams of Anaheim presented the resolution covering the matter. That resolution follows:

Resolution of the Democratic Central Committee of Orange County, California, requesting the appointment of J. Frederick Ahlborn to the office of Postmaster of the city of Anaheim, California.

Whereas, the Democratic Central Committee of Orange County, in convention assembled on Feb. 15, 1913, unanimously endorsed and recommended for the postmastership of Anaheim, Orange County, California, J. Frederick Ahlborn of said city of Anaheim, California; and Whereas, said J. Frederick Ahlborn has been a life-long Democrat, standing high in the councils of his party and in the esteem of his fellow citizens; and Whereas, said J. Frederick Ahlborn has given most valuable service to his city and surrounding territory; and Whereas, the candidacy of said J. Frederick Ahlborn has met with the highest approval of the patrons of the postoffice at Anaheim, which fact is evidenced by the numerous signed petitions now in the hands of Congressman William Kettner at Washington, D. C.; and Whereas, the term of the present incumbent in the postoffice at Anaheim, California, has expired; therefore be it

Resolved, that His Excellency, President Woodrow Wilson be and is hereby respectfully requested to grant the petition of the people of Anaheim, California, and the prayer of the Democratic Central Committee of the County of Orange, California, and appoint to the office of postmaster of the city of Anaheim, California, said J. Frederick Ahlborn; and be it further Resolved, that the attention of the Hon. A. S. Burleson, Postmaster General, is hereby respectfully directed to this matter; and be it further Resolved, that the Hon. William Kettner, our Representative in Congress, is hereby respectfully requested to bring this matter direct to the attention of President Woodrow Wilson and Postmaster General A. S. Burleson and recommend the immediate appointment of said J. Frederick Ahlborn to the postmastership of the city of Anaheim, California, he being eminently qualified to fill this position, and his appointment will meet with the approval of a very large majority of the patrons of the office and the satisfaction of the Democratic Party in the County of Orange; and be it further

Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be sent to President Woodrow Wilson, Postmaster General Burleson, and Congressman William Kettner.

LEMON GROWERS MAN HELD AFTER SUICIDE OF BROTHER WILL HAVE RETURNS

J. C. C. Orders Reparations on All Shipments Between Nov. 15, '09, and Feb. 14, '12

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The interstate commerce commission today granted five cents per hundred pounds reparation on all carload shipments of lemons from California to the east between November 15, 1909, and February 14, 1912. This is in conformity with the commission's ruling that the $1.15 freight rate was unlawful in that it exceeded $1.00 per hundred. The reparation returns will reach a big total.

WRESTLING FINALS ON TONIGHT

NEW YORK, March 2.—Finals in the international wrestling tournament to select a worthy opponent to draw Champion Frank Gotch out of retirement are scheduled for tonight. Bernard Hanson of Norway, Wladek Zysky, who won the recent Paris tourney; John Hakerell, who calls himself the "Delaware American," Gustav Fritensky, the Bohemian, and Alexander Aberg, the huge Finn, were among those who won in the semifinals recently, and were scheduled to fight it out tonight.

STORM GRIPS ATLANTIC COAST

Vast Damage Done to Cities of East—New York Suffers Enormous Loss

STORM SOUTH TO FLORIDA AND WEST TO CHICAGO

Suffering Is Intense—Blizzard Piles Snow High—Ships and Railroads Tied Up

NEW YORK, March 2.—The worst blizzard in 25 years prevails here today. There were seven deaths before noon. The suffering is intense. Ten inches of snow had fallen before noon. Traffic is almost impossible. Special warning has been sent to all vessels to remain in port. New Jersey and Pennsylvania each report sleet and wind. A forty-mile-an-hour gale is blowing here. One hundred trains are reported as being stalled and many of them have been cancelled. Wires are generally down. The coal and milk situations are acute. The barometer is still falling. Two are dead at Scranton, two at Long Island and one at Trenton.

Staten Island and Poughkeepsie, as well as New York and other places were dark last night, the storm putting the light plants out of commission. Danger from fires here is great. Five hundred firemen have been detailed to patrol the streets and watch for fires. Street commissioner Featherstone, it is expected, will give thousands of men work in the clearing of the streets when the blizzard abates sufficiently. All ships arriving are being held off Sandy Hook. It will be a week before normal conditions can be restored. The subway is packed, all surface cars being stalled and the elevated cars being irregular. Thousands of people failed to get to work. Brooklyn is snow-bound.

ENTIRE COUNTRY WEST TO CHICAGO STORM SWEEP

The entire country south to North Carolina and west to Chicago is storm swept and all business is at a standstill. Suffering in scores of towns is intense. All trains scheduled to leave here this afternoon and tonight have been annulled. Railroads with headquarters here report staggering losses, while the damage in New York state alone is expected to reach millions.

At 3 o'clock a foot of snow had fallen. It is impossible for the fire apparatus to get through the streets, and in any event the wires of the fire alarm system are down. The same conditions prevail in dozens of cities. Chances for enormous fire losses are great. Forecasters predicted that the storm will wear itself out tonight. Wire communication with scores of surrounding cities is gone and suspended ferry service across the river is making the milk famine more acute hourly. A terrific wind is piling the snow drifts higher. The cold is so intense that it is impossible for any one to remain out of doors. Long distance business of the stock exchange was delayed and it was hours before outside communication of any sort was available.

Of the ships due here today none have reported. The schooner Jacoba Winslow is ashore at Block Island. Life savers rescued nine of the crew, one being drowned. An unidentified schooner is pounding to pieces on Thimble Island, and the crew is believed to be lost.

Blizzard Extends to Florida
BALTIMORE, March 2.—Latest reports say the blizzard extends to Florida. The mercury has dropped to sixteen at Atlanta, Georgia.

TWO PERISH, SEVERAL BADLY FROZEN AT SCRANTON, PA.

SCRANTON, Pa., March 2.—Attempting to struggle home through the storm after being held all night at a tavern where Evanston Billy Sunday was preaching, two men perished this morning and several were badly frozen. C. D. Wheelock and Martin Basias are the dead. When dawn came, 2000 persons were storm-bound in the tavern.

Coffee and food were served to the besieged during the night. The people sang and prayed while the storm howled. Many slept in the news. Workmen opened the path to the tabernacle this morning to bring warm clothing. The snow drifts are mountainous and the wind is like a hurricane. Few people tried to leave the tabernacle, and the indications were that the majority would be forced to remain throughout the day.

Charles Stubberud Cut Throat Last Night—Brother Notified Los Angeles Police Today

LOS ANGELES, March 2.—Notified by Christian Stubberud that his brother Charles had committed suicide, the police today took Christian into custody pending an investigation of the case. Christian said his brother cut his throat and died early last night, but that he did not notify the police until this morning.

A note signed "Chas." was found in the room. It said: "We have been using only our own money; the banks there will tell you so. I don't know why I am suspected, as I have done nothing to be suspected for." Another note in a handwriting resembling Christian's, addressed to a clairvoyant, asked, "Will he die of kidney disease? When will he die, and in what year?"

The brothers were tourists from Canton, S. D., where Charles has a bank account. Christian is his only relative.

ANDERSON'S MARK SETS A NEW RECORD

Manual Arts Took Saturday's Track Meet by Score of 81 to 32

A new county record was set Saturday afternoon when Paul Anderson of the Santa Ana High School track team slid over the high jump bar at five feet, eleven inches. The previous record was five feet, ten inches.

This jump was a feature of the track meet in which Manual Arts High School of Los Angeles defeated the Santa Ana team by a score of 81 to 32. While the score is one-sided, Santa Ana made a better showing than the score indicates. While Manual Arts got all but three firsts, some of the finishes were exceedingly close.

With Ray Adkinson out of the sprints, he being disqualified on account of his age, Manual Arts took both the 100-yard and the 220-yard dashes. Damron of Santa Ana ran a pretty 220.

Earnest Plavan took two firsts for Santa Ana, the broad jump and the low hurdles. Plavan's wide step measured up 21 feet 5 1/2 inches, which is some jump.

Keech ran an excellent mile, and was beaten by a brilliant spurt by Yerkes of Los Angeles in excellent time.

Santa Ana would have had first and second in the low hurdles had not Paul Plavan met with a fall after four-fifths of the distance was covered.

Adkinson was allowed to enter the relay, but when it came to his turn to run the Manual's runner was so far in the lead that Adkinson could only close up several yards of a space that was still open when the tape was reached.

For a little while it looked as though Anderson's high jump was doing things to a good many records outside of the Orange county record. A tape was used that showed the jump to be six feet, one and a quarter inches. Then somebody put up another tape and it showed about three inches less. Both could not be correct. It was decided that the first tape used had been stretched. The ultimate conclusion was that the jump was five feet eleven inches.

Summary
One mile: Yerkes, Manual, first; Keech, Santa Ana, second; Tisworth, Manual, third. Time, 4:38 4-5.
The 100-yard: Redpath and Cronkhite, Manual, first and second; Fahey, Santa Ana, third. Time 10 4-5.
The 120-yard hurdles: Smead and W. Yerkes, Manual, first and third; Graves, Santa Ana, second. Time, 17 2-5.
The 220-yard dash: Cronkhite and Redpath, Manual, first and third.

MAN-SIZED STATE CONTRACTS LET IS "BLEEDING KANSAS" TO FOUR LOW BIDDERS

Kansas Congressman Sets Forth Agricultural Glories of Sunflower State for Materials on its Big Job

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Representative Philip P. Campbell comes from southwestern Kansas, where one county contains enough land to support a Balkan monarchy, and he sprang some startling figures on a group of New England solons recently to support his claim that the East doesn't know what a man-sized state is like. "If all New Hampshire were planted in corn the field would still be more than a million acres smaller than that of the Kansas farmer," said Campbell. "If every square foot of Vermont were sown in wheat their acreage would be less than that in my state. All of Delaware turned into a hay field would never produce the tonnage grown in Kansas, and Rhode Island would hold but a little more than half of our oat fields."

"If all of New York were fenced in for a range our Kansas cattle would feel crowded there for they have more room than that on the Kansas prairies. You would have to add Massachusetts as a garden patch and Connecticut as a barn lot before the aggregation measured up to the Sunflower State."

Statistics of the department of agriculture bear out the claims of the member of Congress, for the seven eastern states enumerated embrace a total of but 52,000,000 acres, which is precisely the acreage of Kansas. But 9,000,000 acres in these states are classed as non-agricultural land, while Kansas has but 2,000,000 acres in this classification, which turns the balance in favor of the western commonwealth.

GEN. BOOTH'S GRAND- DAUGHTER IS TO SPEAK TONIGHT

Miss Victoria Booth Clibborn, grand-daughter of General Booth, occupied the pulpit at the First Methodist Church yesterday. Miss Clibborn was born in Paris, and educated in France. Her mother went there when a girl, and planted the Salvation Army in France, Italy, Switzerland. Again and again, she was stoned and spat upon, and once in Switzerland was imprisoned as she went forth to carry the gospel message. Her daughter is a most gifted, consecrated young woman. She charmed her audience last night, and the altar was filled with young people desiring to lead a new life.

Miss Clibborn's theme was "The Prodigal Son." She began by reading the story. "A certain man had two sons," not servants, but sons. Nothing is more sacred in the universe than that of sonship. She told with wonderful pathos the story and love of that father watching over his boy during the years of early childhood. Then came a striking picture of the selfishness of that boy who thought not of his father with old age coming on. Selfishness is at the bottom of all sin. All are prodigal sons and daughters, but some have returned to the father, while others have not. The curse of loving one's self, and of living for self, was portrayed in a most impressive way.

"What have you done that you should be born in Christian America and not in godless France," she said. "Why have you been brought up in Christian homes, and had praying parents and open Bibles, when such multitudes have not had these great blessings? Here in Santa Ana you have thirty churches. I am told, while in France there are whole communities that have not a single Christian man or woman in them."

Experiences of the utter degradation of the people who have revolted against the Roman church, and are without God were given. "You cannot serve God and Mammon," said Miss Clibborn. "Only one can be on the throne. Is Christ on the throne of your heart?" An earnest appeal followed for a frank, honest, open confession for Christ.

Miss Clibborn is a sweet singer, and sang most effectively "Just As I Am," to the tune of "The Rosary." It is difficult to describe the peculiar charm of her manner which is distinctly French from birth and training. She speaks again tonight and tomorrow night.

RUSSIAN THISTLE SAID GOOD LIVESTOCK FOOD

MANHATTAN, Kans., March 2.—William C. Stevens, professor of botany at the University of Kansas, today issued an appeal to farmers throughout this and other cattle states to make use of the Russian thistle as a food for livestock. According to Professor Stevens, the thistle should be taken from the weed class and pronounced a proper food for cattle. Heretofore, according to Professor Stevens, farmers have been called unprintable things for doing so. Many still cling to the notion that the use of the Russian thistle for livestock is a "crazy idea." Steps will be taken to have the Department of Agriculture at Washington send out propaganda to combat this idea.

DRYS SELECT A DRY TICKET

Edmiston, Gervais and Allen

Are to Run for

Trustees

ANAHEIM, March 2.—A meeting was held Saturday evening for the purpose of considering candidates who will be nominated by petition to run on an independent ticket at the approaching municipal election. Although several attempts were made by prominent men present to have their party known as an independent or citizen's ticket, it became apparent that the majority wished it to be known under the head of "dry" advocates. F. C. Krause acted in the capacity of chairman and William Zimmerman as secretary. F. T. Edmiston, D. Gervais and W. B. Allen were chosen to run for the vacancies which will occur in the Council and M. E. Beebe and Charles Boege were endorsed for clerk and treasurer respectively.

MISS EILEEN EVERETT PROMINENT SENIOR

ORANGE, March 2.—Miss Eileen Everett of Orange has been appointed on Senior Week Committee at Stanford University. This committee will have general supervision of the festivities preceding graduation in May, and the honor given Miss Everett is a distinctive one.

Because of ill-health, Miss Carol Green of Pasadena has resigned her offices of president of the women's conference and of the women's council, which offices she has held during all of the present year.

Miss Everett of Orange, vice-president of the conference, will become its chief executive, and Miss Clara Cram was elected president of the council.

Miss Everett is prominent in Y. W. C. A. work, is a member of the Cap and Gown Society, and Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, and has been appointed to serve not only on the Senior Week Committee but also on the Senior Prom committee.

Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know Pape's Diapiesin will save them from any stomach misery.

Please, for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store, and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Pape's Diapiesin belongs in your home anyway. Should one of the family eat something which doesn't agree with them, or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at day-time or during the night, it is handy to give the quickest, surest relief known.—Advertisement.

Spring Is Here

and with it comes the need of new furniture for the home

Your home needs a little brightening up, no doubt. It may be a new rug is needed, or a Matting for the bedroom. A new Linoleum for the kitchen or bathroom; a new mattress or bed springs to make a more comfortable summer bed, curtains in lace, net or scrim to dress the windows anew; a comfortable rocker, couch or easy chair for the living room; a nice library table to replace the old fashioned one; a new dining table, buffet or set of dining chairs; or perhaps you may be contemplating a new parlor set, a davenport or Morris chair this spring. These are only a few suggestions that would add much to the appearance of your home.

THAT SCHOOL BONDS PROPOSITION

The Register has not desired, nor does it now desire to take the initiative, in anything like an aggressive spirit, in the matter of voting more school bonds for what are very generally admitted to be much needed additional school facilities. But this paper is quite willing to go on record in favor of such action by the community, and to give its reasons for that attitude.

Of course we do not urge that an election be called in spite of evidence that the bonds would be voted down. If after consultation and cancellation and conference and canvass it shall appear that the bonds cannot be carried no election should be called. But before deciding not to call an election, the proposition should be fully and fairly considered on its merits, without personal prejudice or sectional or factional feeling.

For instance, a man or woman who would vote against school bonds for needed improvements merely because he or she favored a site for the new high school other than the one selected is not a good citizen. The Register preferred another site, but it favors the tentatively proposed bond issue for a high school auditorium, and for additional class rooms to provide for the sixty per cent increase in high school attendance since the last bond election.

Likewise anyone who would vote against the proposed new bond issue merely because he or she does not like some member of the school board or faculty, or merely because a mistake was made in estimating the amount of money needed for the new polytechnic high school group of buildings, is not a good citizen.

The fundamental fact in that regard as we understand it, is that the estimate made, in advance of the call for the election, of the amount of money needed was too low. Stripped of its non-essentials and reduced to its last analysis, the failure created over the new high school buildings amounts to that and nothing more.

At all events the best testimony available is to the effect that, in the buildings we have, we got our money's worth. And aside from all controversy as to the policy pursued in the dilemma arising from the insufficiency of funds, we are confronted by the facts, that we are in very great need of a high school auditorium, and that we already need and soon must have additional class rooms in order that the amazing increase in attendance may be properly provided for. It is a condition and not a theory that confronts us.

We believe that if a committee of five, one from each of the civic bodies—City Trustees, the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants and Manufacturers Association, the Parent-Teachers Association and the Eboli Club—if such a committee should report in favor of the bonds, and all the civic bodies and newspapers should join in a vigorous campaign in their support, they would carry.

The people of Santa Ana are fair-minded and public-spirited. They are people of high ideals, especially in moral and intellectual matters. And if they can be shown that it is their duty to provide $50,000 or $60,000 for additional school facilities they will do it.

IN MIGHTY GOOD COMPANY

Col. Harris Weinstein of the State Industrial Accident Board was the principal speaker at the weekly luncheon of the League for Home Rule in Taxation at a Market street restaurant, in San Francisco Wednesday, February 25th.

The subject of his talk was the "Workmen's Compensation Act" and the attendance, which completely filled the hall, was evidence of Col. Weinstein's reputation as a speaker and the wide-spread interest in his subject.

The speaker paid his respects to those who opposed the Compensation Act as a "freak" measure passed by a "freak" legislature and signed by a "freak" governor, declaring that if this were true then the governor and the legislature are in exceedingly good company, since every European power (except Turkey) and twenty-five states of the United States have workmen's compensation laws.

WHY IS THE NEW PARTY NECESSARY?

By Victor Murdock, of Kansas.

Why is a new party necessary in America? It is a natural question, asked frequently. For fifty years our problems have been centering in the accumulation of wealth. Now our problems are those affecting the distribution of wealth.

THE CHALLENGE TO THE DEMOCRACY IN THE SPECTACLE OF THE IDLE MILLIONAIRE LOLLING IN HIS LIMOUSINE, SIDE BY SIDE WITH THE WAN-FACED, CHILD FACTORY-WORKER ON WHOSE LABOR HE LIVES, CANNOT BE PUT ASIDE. The nation must face it. It was enough in the old days for the nation to obtain prosperity. It is not enough now. We must find a way to pass prosperity around. Why can't the old political parties accomplish that? Because the old parties carry inherent weaknesses that make them inefficient. They have become harmonized aggregations of men of different beliefs, contrary designs, conflicting purposes. They strike the weak half-blow.

The people drove the Republican party from power because it was not solving the new problems; it was aggravating them. It put the Democratic party in power in the hope of remedy. But remedy will not come, because there are two great conflicting factions in the Democratic party that lame and cripple it. The schism which came in the Republican party is coming to the Democratic party, and for the same reason, that is, because the Democratic party will not solve the new problems—it will aggravate them.

There can be so-called political harmony between Bryan, of Nebraska, and Sullivan, of Illinois, but it is at an awful cost—the price is party inefficiency. There can be so-called political harmony between Cummings, of Iowa, and Barnes, of New York, but the cost is a deadly one upon the people.

There is, there can be, but one efficient harmony in party organization—the harmony that springs from the association of men who come together, moved by a common impulse; cemented by a common desire and design; moved, in a mighty spirit of mutuality, by a common purpose.

Abraham Lincoln understood this when, in 1857, his associates asked him to fight the battle of freedom in the Whig party. They pointed out the strength of the old party; the potency of the party name; the value of organizations already in existence. But Lincoln answered No. He wanted the new party and the new name. He was not seeking to hold power. He was proposing to bring men of like mind together for patriotic service.

In unity there is strength. But the unity must be more than seeming; it must be actual. This party discipline which forces a man to act with men who are opposed to him, may bring, temporarily, party success, but it brings no lasting solution to the nation's troubles. It will not do to compromise. We must go on. We shall go on. I have only sorrow for those who halt. In all our history that is the most tragic chapter which shows the magnificent Daniel Webster making the Senate speech which offered compromise to the slave-holding aristocracy.

The Progressive party will be efficient because it is new; because the men who will carry out its pledges for social justice, judicial reform and a restoration of equal opportunity, have joined it for a common purpose. It will not compromise. It will not dilly-dally. It will not be sectional as the old parties are sectional. It will be national. The Republican of California is not the Republican of Massachusetts. The Democrat of Ohio is not the Democrat of Alabama. Their desires are discordant, their purposes at war. But the Progressive of Florida is the Progressive of Illinois; the Progressive of Colorado, the Progressive of Maine. Here is the unity in which there is real strength; here is the harmony which will bring real remedy: THE HARMONY WHICH, TRANSLATED INTO PARTY ACTION, WILL LAY HOLD OF THE TIMES AND BLAZE OUT THROUGH THE WILDERNESS OF INEQUITIES WHICH BESET US, A PATH TO A FUTURE DAY OF AN ECONOMIC SQUARE DEAL FOR EVERYBODY.

This is my faith. This, I believe, hundreds of thousands of men and women have in their hearts as a faith, and no siren song of amalgamation, of consolidation, of temporizing compromise can blind them to its truth.

IMPORTANCE OF CONSERVING STORM WATER

Southern California is now beginning to fully appreciate and understand that water conservation is not only the key to future expansion and development, but that at the same time it is interwoven with the question of flood control; that the true control of flood waters does not consist in the deepening of channels and building of dykes to hasten the rapid run off of storm water to the sea, but in the conservation of the water itself for use on the land during the summer months; that this conservation renders an increasing acreage capable of irrigation, more particularly in the thermal or so-called citrus belt; and, moreover, that such conservation is an assurance against water shortage during the seasons of low rainfall.

This conservation of the winter rainfall to prove of the greatest ultimate value must be carried out along a number of differing, but at the same time interdependent lines:

1. The conservation of the cover and undergrowth on the mountain slopes, with the consequent lessening of the run off.

2. The building of storage reservoirs for the impounding of storm water.

3. The spreading of storm water over the debris cones at the mouths of the many streams.

4. The preparation of tillable land so as to largely eliminate all local run off.

Conservation of Mountain Cover

The conservation of the brush and mountain cover is largely a question of guarding against fire during the dry period of the year. This is one of the most important duties undertaken by the Federal Forestry Department, the work being carried out by means of watching for incipient fires and their control when once started by means of fire breaks.

Storage Reservoirs

The building of storage reservoirs is costly. While the future will undoubtedly see great expansion in this direction, the immediate control of flood or storm waters will rather lie in other directions.

Spreading the Storm Water

The spreading of flood waters over suitable debris cones at the mouths of mountain streams is at the present time receiving the greatest amount of attention, as witnessed by the increasing number of instances where augurating this system of controlling and saving storm waters. We quote the following from an article written by him some few months since:

"Fourteen years ago I began the first experimental spreading of flood waters in Southern California for the purpose of increasing the quantity which sinks into the gravels and sand in order to reinforce the subsoil water, the level of which had been falling for five years, owing to heavy pumping."

"So far as I am aware it was the first time in the history of the world in which human agency had endeavored to assist nature in filling up the underground reservoirs."

"I organized the first co-operative association for doing this work, which included all the principal water companies in the three counties of San Bernardino, Riverside and Orange, and was elected its first president."

"The movement has now spread over Southern California, and the value of flood waters is so fully recognized that several lawsuits have been fought over the right to make use of them."

"During the past year not one drop of flood water has escaped from Edgar canyon, a mountain stream in

SERIOUS CATARRH

YIELDS TO HYOMEI

You Breathe It

Be wise in time and use Hyomei at the first symptom of catarrh, such as frequent head colds, constant sniffing, raising of mucous, or droppings in the throat. Do not let the disease become deep-seated and you are in danger of a serious if not fatal ailment.

There is no other treatment for catarrh, head colds, etc., like the Hyomei method, none just as good, so easy and pleasant to use, and lasting relief. You breathe it—no stomach dosing. Rowley Drug Co. will refund your money if you are not benefited.

Try Hyomei at once and see how quickly it clears the head, stops the sniffing, and banishes catarrh. Hyomei helps you to enjoy good health. All druggists sell it. Ask for the complete outfit—$1.00—Advertisement.

Riverside county, where it is skillfully spread and forced to sink into the ground by the Beaumont Land and Water Company, who pump, during the irrigation season, from four points in the canyon.

"I think the time will come when no flood water will reach the sea in Southern California at any time during the year. The flood waters will be apportioned and diverted to the various spreading grounds, just as every drop of summer flow is today divided among the respective owners and carried upon the irrigated lands."

Later in the same article Mr. Pedley writes:

"I hope and believe that within a few years we shall see in the daily papers a notice issued by the weather bureau: 'Class D lands' to be flooded until further notice."

Amongst the recent movements in the direction of thus spreading storm waters in Southern California may be cited that of the Carpenter Water Company, watering lands around El Modena in Orange county; the Fontana irrigation companies and the Citizens Land company of Bloomington, where storm water was recently spread at the mouths of the Lytle creek and Cajon canons in San Bernardino. In the latter instance three days effort during last January resulted in the conservation of thousands of inches of water, a spreading basin with an estimated depth of 1000 feet and with an average porosity of 20 per cent being there available.

Wherever tried this spreading of storm waters has proved of immense value, not only in filling up the artesian basins but also in lessening the amount of flood waters escaping to the lower grounds.

Mr. Pedley quotes the following two instances of the great absorbent powers of these gravel and sand beds: (1) While spreading flood waters at San Jacinto, Cal., Engineer Kingsbury Sanborn ascertained that up to five cubic feet per second to the acre could be sunk upon sandy land; and, (2) that where five cubic feet per second was diverted from the main channel of City Creek, in San Bernardino county, into an old channel, in less than half a mile it had disappeared; it covered a maximum width of eight feet, and gradually became less and less until the last trickle went down into the gravel. A rough calculation showed that the area covered was one-third of an acre, so that in this extremely favorable case the rate of absorption was three times greater than that at San Jacinto.

And so, as a means of replenishing the subsoil water at points where it is available for use on the higher citrus lands, the value of so handling the winter storm waters cannot be overestimated; the very life of our citrus orchards depending upon adequate supplies of water for summer irrigation.

Again, by the lessening, and ultimately the entire elimination, of the flood waters reaching the low lands, the cause of untold damage to property is done away with; while at the same time the levels of the water in the lower artesian belts is gradually raised and continuously maintained by the slow seepage or under ground flow from the higher gravel and sand beds.

The heavy rains of the present winter have driven home more forcibly than ever the extreme importance of flood control; and the full realization of the fact that such control also means great additions to the existing supplies of water available for irrigation during the summer months amply demonstrates the fact that all expenditures for this work are of direct value to all residing or owning property in Southern California, regardless of where located or upon what business or work they may be depending for a livelihood.

General Lew Wallace, the author of "Ben-Hur," attended the rendition of his famous book as given one night by Montaville Flowers in the author's home city, Crawfordsville, Ind. At the close General Wallace put his arm about Flowers and said, "This is by far the best treatment my book has ever had." The Cincinnati Enquirer had this to say about the rendition of this play in this city: "Though a resident of this city and in his fiftieth appearance here in ten years to the largest audience in the history of the Y. M. C. A. star course, nearly 4000 people, Montaville Flowers was the extraordinary attraction at Music Hall last night. He presented the monologue of 'Ben-Hur' in a powerful enactment, full of dramatic force and intensity of delivery. In the chariot race scene he reached a climax which is seldom witnessed and which was warmly greeted by the applause of the audience."

EBELL CLUB MEETING

Yearly Reports Heard—Matter of Clubhouse Deferred—Address by Dana Bartlett

The regular meeting of Santa Ana Valley Ebell Association was held as usual in Elks' hall, Saturday February 28. The president, Mrs. A. J. Lawton, called the meeting to order promptly and the minutes were read and approved. The treasurer's report was read and accepted. The report of the board meeting, also that of corresponding secretary were read. The club then heard the reading of a letter from the Home Industrial League, asking that the club women purchase "Made in California" goods when of equal value, thereby helping the unemployed and encouraging home industries.

The report of the Ebell Day Nursery was very interesting and cheering and comparisons were in Santa Ana's favor when compared with the reports of similar institutions in other Southern California towns.

Next in order was the discussion of whether the Santa Ana Valley Ebell Association build a clubhouse by subscription or in some other way. After a short preliminary discussion, it was decided that there were not enough members present to decide such an important question, hence its further discussion was postponed.

The president introduced Rev. Dana Bartlett, who gave a very interesting lecture on "Community Patriotism." Dr. Bartlett is well known throughout Southern California and the country in general as an able exponent of civic patriotism and uplift, having given many years to the practical work of helping to make the immigrants who have come to the Pacific coast adaptable to American citizenship and useful members of the community in which they took habitation.

Woman's Club to Meet
The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held tomorrow afternoon at the B. Utley home, 423 Pine street. Roll call will be responded to with educational items. Mrs. Lilian Akin will talk on "The Public School and its Place in Our Life." A goodly attendance is urged.

The Coreopsis Club of Tustin will meet with Mrs. T. F. McDonald, 1002 West Chestnut street, Wednesday afternoon.

Conservatory Musicals
Another of the popular pupils' recitals was held on Saturday afternoon at the roomy studios of the Orange County Conservatory of Music. The pupils presented this time were from the class of Mr. Gustlin, the director and founder of this progressive school for the study of that noblest of arts.

The interest of the goodly gathering of patrons and friends was held from first to last and the program was not less well rendered than it was happily chosen, consisting as it did of numbers of genuine classic beauty calculated to portray the finest qualities of artistic instruction. Preceding the program Mr. Gustlin gave a felicitous little talk on pupils' recitals in general, their purpose, advantages and benefits, giving many valuable hints as to how that bugbear, stage fright, may be overcome. Among Mr. Gustlin's pupils is a little tot, Miss Elizabeth Parslow, whom he has taken under his personal charge because of the exceptional musical ability she has shown. Her numbers proved exceedingly interesting, arousing no little comment for their clever performance.

Most of the program was given from memory, which was a strong factor in its success. Mr. Gustlin and

Moose Masquerade
The Moose masquerade of last Saturday night at the Moose hall attracted a large attendance. There were a number of people masking, but comparatively few in costume. However, the event was very enjoyable. Miss Esther Rogers, dressed as Pocahontas, won first ladies' prize, and R. J. Ryan, representing a "one-eyed" won first men's prize. There were a few very attractive costumes.

"A Southern Flower"
The ladies of the Relief Corps are busy in the preparation of "A Southern Flower," which they will produce at the Temple Theater on Saturday evening, March 14. The corps has always been successful in its social undertakings, and the redoubled efforts they are putting forth in the production of this play makes it reasonable to predict it one of their best entertainments, and a far more presentation than any they have yet attempted. In the coming production the aim will be to make it as much an artistic success as a merited home enterprise. Under professional direction the local players will have their histrionic ability developed and handled with due care and thoroughness. Mr. Diablo the director, has produced the play in many cities throughout the northwest with marked success, and the Santa Ana players, he expects, will equal if not excel his other organizations. Seats will be on sale at Rowley's Drug Store.

Will Read "The Melting Pot"
There is in Santa Ana a considerable interest in good entertainment, and among those who are interested in such things may always be classed Santa Ana's public school teachers. It will be remembered that last year, among other good things, they brought Mr. S. H. Clark of the Chicago University, who read Les Miserables in the Grand Opera House. On that occasion the opera house was packed and everyone was delighted with Mr. Clark's work. The teachers have engaged Mr. Clark for two readings this year. The first will be on Tuesday, March 10, "The Melting Pot," the second on Tuesday, March 17, Pinero's "The Magistrate."

WATSON-DOFFLEMEYER

Santa Ana Man Weds Los Angeles Girl—Will Reside Here After Honeymoon

Ernest A. Watson of 1701 Bush street, Santa Ana, and Miss Gladys Dofflemeyer, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Dofflemeyer of Los Angeles, were united in marriage at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, February 28, at the home of the bride's parents.

The house was made beautiful for the wedding event, pink carnations, sunnys and palms graced the drawing room and dining room, while calla lilies and ferns graced the halls. Rev. Wilbur Davis, pastor of the West Adams Methodist church officiated in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bride party entered the pretty drawing room to the strains of the Lohengrin Wedding March. The bride, leaning on her father's arm, looked charming in a pretty gown of white crepe de chine, trimmed in shadow lace, and was attended by Miss Mildred Harriman of Los Angeles, who looked very attractive in a soft white dress with trimmings of pink, carrying a large bouquet of pink roses. The best man was Le Roy Shafer, a law student of University of California.

Many handsome gifts were received, tokens of the high esteem in which the young people were held. After receiving congratulations from a host of friends, a sumptuous wedding dinner was enjoyed. Early in the afternoon, amidst showers of rice, the young couple left for San Diego, where they will spend their honeymoon. They many friends in Los Angeles wish for them a long and very happy life, and Mr. Watson's friends in Santa Ana will greet them here with a hearty welcome. The young couple will reside on a ranch near Santa Ana.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF PATRICK OWEN

One of the most largely attended funerals ever held in Santa Ana was that of Patrick Owen, held this forenoon at the home of the deceased. The service was conducted by Rev. Father Emmelen and Rev. Father Ferreira of Huntington Park. The city council attended the service in a body. Mr. Owen having served the city for fourteen years. The Knights of Macabees also attended in a body and both of these bodies as well as the Altar Society and many others. St. Joseph's Catholic church sent beautiful floral pieces. Members of the city street department were present at the funeral. The procession following the deceased to Fairview Cemetery was a large one.

Walnut Association to Raise Standard of Pack

Los Angeles Times: The California Walnut Growers Association is not to blame for the general cry from the wholesale grocers and commission men of the east against the quality of the crop and the prices asked. Never in the history of the industry has there been so determined a fight against the producers because of their alleged undergrading of nuts and holding prices up on realization of the serious defects of the crop.

Naturally, the association, as the most extensive handlers of nuts, has come in for the bulk of the discredit. Harry E. Sloan, secretary of the Missouri-Kansas Wholesale Grocers' association, writing for the association recently discussed the quality of the deliveries in 1913. "That the wholesale grocer, and likewise the consumer, paid an exorbitant price for inferior goods goes without saying, and it is true that those who handled California walnuts suffered considerable loss," he wrote.

"Practically all receipts were inferior, discarded and low part in quality and it is generally claimed that the grading was worse than the quality and that fully 25 per cent of the No. 1, soft-shell, should have been graded as No. 2." Sloan further suggested that climatic conditions may have been bad, but that this did not have anything to do with the grading which he urged that the prices should have been much lower and that the action of the grocers had caused so much trouble that it would be difficult to secure any advance contracts this year.

It has been customary for eastern jobbers to place their orders for walnuts long before anybody can tell what the crop is going to be, on the quotation to be made by the association and confirmed by them, deliveries to follow subject to approval. When the harvesting, bleaching and packing is done, the nuts are shipped to the buyer C.O.D. and slight draft and bill of lading covering the amount of the invoice sent to a bank in the community to which he walnuts are going.

It has been charged that the nuts are not to be delivered to the purchaser until after the draft has been paid and the bill of lading has been delivered to the railroad company of officials; further that claims for shortage in weight or inferior quality after the purchase are not allowed, thus placing the purchaser up against a hard proposition. The cry of "trust" has gone up and many of the wholesalers actually believe that the organization of walnut growers is a trust.

Not a Trust
The officers of this organization daily deny this allegation and declare that their association does not combine to restrain trade or otherwise follow a trust policy. C. Thorpe, secretary.

SUPERIOR, WIS., TO VOTE ON OWNING STREET CARS

SUPERIOR, Wis., March 2.—An active fight was started here today by the proponents of a municipal street railway, and from now until April 7, the day of the election, the people will be told in a dozen different ways why they should vote "yes" on the question, "Shall the city buy and operate its street car lines?"

This is probably the first popular vote ever taken on the question and that it is receiving serious consideration is shown by the crowds of citizens from every walk in life who attend the meetings where the question is argued. If the vote is affirmative the commissioners declare they will take over that part of the Duluth Street Railway Company system operated in Superior and will establish a new completely municipally-owned and operated street railway in the Middle West.

Dissatisfaction over the company's attitude toward the city is back of the movement. The company refuses to grant lower rates or to extend its lines as warranted by the growth of the city.

PLOT FOR DYNAMITING SEATTLE BUILDINGS

SEATTLE, March 2.—The discovery of twelve sticks of dynamite and an infernal machine in a house on the outskirts of the city started an investigation of what the police believe to be a plot to dynamite buildings here. Charles Kilman, aged thirty, claiming to be a private detective, was arrested after being shadowed for three days. He admitted following two men to the dynamite cache. He says the men stole the explosive from the railroad stores at Rockdale and then he followed them here. He said their plan was to blow up the Frye meat packing plant and the Evers Transfer company building.

NOTICE

For Sale—Forty acres land at southeast corner Fairview and Sullivan; water-stocked; will raise beets, sweet potatoes, peppers, melons or any thing you want to raise.
Also 1.157 acres at 1030 Parton street, in bearing walnuts and other fruits; modern six-room house with electricity, bath, toilet, gas, barn and fenced chicken-tight, also water-stocked and cement sidewalks. Effie T. Edwards, 826 North Birch street.

If you bought it at Taylor's you got the best we could buy, and it was put up clean. For instance, those waffles and hot cakes at breakfast and that Special at noon. If you had sandwich and coffee they were made after you ordered them.

FOUR MONTHS' OLD PULLET LAYS LIKE VETERAN HEN

Mrs. George Fox of 439 East First street is the owner of what she believes to be a Plymouth Rock hen that should receive recognition in the championship class. The pullet, which is well developed and has the look of a mature hen, was hatched on October fourth and laid her first egg February first.

tary and manager of the association, left several weeks ago to pacify the eastern buyers, while Assistant Secretary H. C. Sharp is holding down the fort at home.

Much of the blame for the poor walnuts sent east rests with the independent dealers who did not grade out as carefully as in other years," he declared. "This last year the association graded more No. 2 nuts than in any year of the industry owing to the fact that the whole crop ran to small sizes. The minimum on the size of No. 1 never varies, is done with automatic graders which are efficient and accurate."

As for the quality of association deliveries we set a standard of 87 per cent that would crack good, edible meats. This was fractionally lower than usual, but inspection of many cars proved the nuts to crack at better than 90 per cent. The discoloration of the skin and the darkening of the meats was due to the elements. Our association did more during the season just past to make the quality right than ever before, knowing the serious handicaps of the crop. A third of the entire harvest handled through the association was set aside as culls or seconds.

"That the purchasers could not have lost large sums stands to reason with the repeat orders for the second, third and fourth cars that came from the same jobbers. The statement that the association will not allow for shortage in weight or inferior quality on delivery is absurd and all orders are filled and carry instruction to the railroad company to permit inspection of the nuts without surrender of the bill of lading."

"The walnut growers last season went through a real ordeal and as a consequence they are planning many things which will help raise the standard of the pack, and, if possible, improve the quality of the nuts. Unless we are fair, we realize that the foreign walnuts will, with the reduced tariff, take the place of those raised here and we certainly are not going to kill the goose that lays the golden egg."

OUR WEEKLY SERMON

"Cost of Discipleship;" sermon preached by Rev. Geo. Husser, pastor of Zion's Evangelical Church Sunday, March 1, 1914.

Text: "For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it."—Luke 14:28.

Very frequently the inexpensive, the simplicity, the glory, the sunny side of religion is emphasized to the exclusion of the cost connected with it. Some preachers and evangelists often endeavor very greatly to make it easy for people to come into the fold. They let the bars clear down, open wide the door, make the gates high, ask only for the uplifted hand, for a nod of the head, for a low-toned request and invite everyone to come in. No conviction, no repentance, no restitution, no renunciation, no striving, no burden, no yoke, no cross, but happiness, glory, crowns, harps, Heaven. Not so was Christ's method of winning men for his kingdom. He never made it easy. Our redemption was not easy for him. It meant condescension, poverty, rejection, betrayal, Gethsemane, Calvary. To those following him he says in verses 26 and 27: "If any man come to me and hate not (love less) his father, his mother, his life, his children, brethren and sisters, yes his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever does not bear his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple." "He that findeth his life shall lose it, and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it." Math. 10, 39. "Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me." Mark 8, 34. Hence in order to be a true disciple of Christ there is a price to be paid, there are costs to be met. There is a sacrifice to be rendered. This is also true of character, of learning, of success, of all good things in life. We can have it all, if we pay the price. What then is the cost of discipleship? What price must be paid to be a real Christian? For the sake of clearness and brevity, I will number the items of importance:

1. It will cost a man his self-righteousness. "There is none righteous, no not one." "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." "Christ came to call sinners to repentance and not the self-righteous." "Jesus came to seek and to save that which was lost." But many people, then as well as now, do not consider themselves lost. They are good and righteous in their own eyes. They can help themselves. They do not need a saviour. They are children of God and hope to be heirs of heaven by their own endeavors. Such are like the Pharisee in the temple. They will not be justified, "for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted."

2. Discipleship will cost a man his sins and sinful pleasures. "Jesus saves his people from their sins," never in their sins. God loves the sinner, but he hates sin. "Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity." Sins are to be confessed, repented of and forsaken then Jesus is "faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

3. It will cost the favor of the world. The world is at enmity with God. It lieth in the wicked one. It is in league with the prince of darkness. Hence the worldly minded people hated Christ, the light of the world, and they will hate those that are born of God and are disciples of Christ. "If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you." "I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you."

4. It oftentimes costs the good will of blood relatives. "I am come to set a man at variance against his father and the daughter against her mother," and a man's foes shall be they of his own household." As Christ was rejected and persecuted by his own people so it has happened with his disciples all along the centuries and even does today especially on the mission fields, that they are disowned by their nearest relatives.

5. In short, discipleship will mean self denial, cross bearing, surrendering our own will, obedience to the great master of souls, and faithfulness unto death. Christ advises every candidate for discipleship to sit down and first count the cost, ere laying his hand to the plow, ere enrolling his name in the army of the heavenly king, but having come up to the requirements, having voluntarily fulfilled the conditions and paid the price, what has such a one gained? More than words can express, infinitely more than the world can bestow. The real disciple of Christ will have all of his sins forgiven, his conscience purified, his heart renewed by the power of grace divine, will be born into the family of God, will become a son of God and will have the witness of the Holy Spirit to this glorious fact in his own soul; will be justified by faith and there will be no condemnation unto him, for he will be in Christ Jesus; he has passed from death unto life and from the power of sin and Satan unto God and righteousness. His peace will be like a river, for it will be the peace of God that transcends all understanding, and his righteousness will be like the waves of the sea for it will be the righteousness of the son of God, "who was made unto us wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption." He will receive the best of friends, immediate spiritual relatives, he will have communion with all the saints on earth and in heaven; he will have victory over sin, over self, over the wicked one, over the world, fears and death; he will be fruitful unto every good word and work, from his body will flow a blessing to all with whom he comes in contact. Into his bosom he will have planted by the Master's hand a sure and bright hope of eternal life and when it will be his to go hence he will receive an abundant entrance into the heavenly home and a crown that fadeth not away. How much are all these blessings worth? Are they worth the cost? Who would not want to be a disciple of Christ? Do not delay, but enter his service today.

Mr. Newlyn—"Yes, we've got a fine little dove here. But it's one of those swell apartment houses, and they don't allow any washing done. Won't stand for the smell and muss."

Anty Drudge—"Poor boy! You must be nearly bankrupt with big laundry bills. But, get your wife some Fels-Naptha Soap and she can fool the janitor. Won't need boiling water. Just use it cool or lukewarm. Rub the clothes lightly and they'll be like snow."

Fels-Naptha cleans things more thoroughly in cool or lukewarm water, in little time, than if they were boiled till Doomsday.

All that's needed is cool or lukewarm water, and even a bowl or basin will do for a few things.

If you live in a room, apartments or occupy a whole house, remember this:

Boiling and hard rubbing is unnecessary when you use Fels-Naptha Soap.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-Time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray disappears; after another application of two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Advertisement.

PAYS $4,000 AN ACRE FOR A GROVE

Well Known Orchardist Sells Part of His Holdings to Whittier Man

LA HABRA, March 2.—John Scott, a well-known orange grower of La Habra, appears as seller and Dr. Levi D. Johnson of Whittier as the purchaser, of twelve acres of 9-year-old Valencia oranges for the round sum of $4000 per acre, or $48,000 for the lot. There are no buildings on the ground, and the fact that the purchaser has been a resident of Whittier for sixteen years and has seen every grove in this district planted and grown, indicates faith in the La Habra citrus district. If the price on this tract were computed on the price per city lot, then the cost per lot would be just $700. The grove is a part of Scott's home ranch in the northern part of Orange county, a ranch which he bought of W. J. Hole less than four years ago, paying $150,000 for 150 acres of land, sixty five of which was planted to trees. The part acquired by Dr. Johnson lies in the southwest corner of the ranch, and fronts the state highway. The Scott ranch was one of the fortunate ones during the January freeze of 1913, and Scott's Valencia continued to bring the top-notch price on the New York market last year so long as his supply lasted. This year the Valencia crop on his place is estimated at forty-five cars. Dr. Johnson is to get the crop on his new purchase.

NO WAR OF MODERN WOODMEN OVER RATE RAISE

TOLEDO, Ohio, March 2.—Insisting that there will be no fight in the Modern Woodmen of America over rate increases, head officers of the organization today announced from their offices in Rock Island, Ill., that changes in the ritual of the fraternity and the establishment of a trial court will be the two chief matters of business to be considered at the head camp convention here in June. Opponents of the head officers still profess to believe that the head camp will try to enforce a new rate increase, and are bending every effort toward electing delegates opposed to the old regime. Indications are that the fight over the offices will be bitter. The demand for a new ritual takes the form of a claim that the degree system is not sufficiently comprehensive. Certain leading members will put forth the claim that greater fraternal lessons should be taught, to create a closer bond of fellowship in the order. The proposed creation of a trial court would take out of the hands of the head camp executive council the settling of all controversies affecting the standing reputation of any Woodman. It is proposed to make the new body elective and independent of all executive officers.

QUESTION IS: WHO SIGNED A $1,750 NOTE

Mrs. Mary J. Neill Says Signature is a Forgery Pure and Simple

A $1,750 note is subject of a suit on trial in the superior court before Judge Thomas today. There is but one point involved, and that is: Is the signature of Mrs. Mary J. Neill to the note a forgery?

Mrs. Neill says it is a forgery. The plaintiff holds that the signature is genuine and that Mrs. Neill ought to be made to pay the note. If the jury finds that the signature is genuine, judgment will be entered against Mrs. Neill.

John P. Kurth is the plaintiff. The action grew out of one of the deals in which Edward M. McKinsey took part before he decided to disappear last August. Kurth sold some horses to McKinsey. At the First National Bank, McKinsey delivered the note to Kurth. Kurth did not see it signed by Mrs. Neill, and believed it genuine, and still believes it to be genuine.

Williams & Rutan represent Kurth and W. M. Brown appears for the defendant. Those on the jury are W. J. Leiser, J. H. Sharps, George Myrick, J. R. Swartz, A. P. Jacobson, George Nay, C. H. DeLapp, J. J. Pyle, George Schroeder, R. Courreges, Robert Appel and G. F. Havens.

A. Getty, W. B. Tedford and C. S. Crookshank of the First National Bank and E. P. Stanford and H. T. Rutherford of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank all testified that they believed the signature to be Mrs. Neill's. The defense has a handwriting expert from Los Angeles who will be put on the stand.

For Pipeline
W. A. Greenleaf has petitioned the supervisors for permission to lay a pipeline across the Anaheim road at Olive.

For Divorce
Julia Carrol has brought suit for divorce against Conception Carrol. Ellis & Benshof are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Judgment Abstract
An abstract of judgment entered in the Los Angeles justice's court has been recorded here. Judgment was for $2,267 in favor of Noah Schwartzlose and against W. H. Jackson.

Harris Buys It
This morning Sheriff Riddock sold under execution the house and lot on East Washington avenue that was occupied by E. M. McKinsey before McKinsey pulled off his disappearance.

Woman's Beauty No Secret

It all lies in the care she bestows upon herself and in keeping at bay those dread hills peculiar to her sex. The flashing eye, the elastic step and the clear complexion never accompany organic troubles. The distressed expression, lassitude, headaches, and mental depression are only the tell-tale symptoms. Women so troubled should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that simple remedy made from roots and herbs and restores their health to a normal condition.

JUST RIGHT FOR BACKACHE AND RHEUMATISM

Foley Kidney Pills are so thoroughly effective for backache, rheumatism, swollen, aching joints, kidney and bladder ailments that they are recommended everywhere. A. A. Jeffords, McGraw, Neb., says: "For the last few months I was troubled with pains in my back and the druggist recommended Foley Kidney Pills for my ailment. I have not yet taken all of one bottle and my old trouble has entirely disappeared. Wingood's Drug Store—Advertisement."

SUNBEAM DRIVER RECOVERING FROM FALL

Cheering News as to Condition of Marquis, Overturned at Grim "Death Curve"

SANTA MONICA, March 2.—It was announced at the hospital today that J. B. Marquis, the driver of the Sunbeam, who was hurt in the Grand Prix auto races last Saturday by an overturn of his machine at Death Curve, is rapidly recovering.

Marquis in his Sunbeam negotiated one of the superb drives of the race, gaining the lead on the thirtieth lap, losing his place and almost his life in the same lap when his machine overturned at Death Curve. His time for the thirty laps was 3 hours, 10 minutes and 11 seconds. He was taken to St. Catherine's hospital, where an operation was necessary. His mechanic, Harry Hough, was practically unhurt by the spill.

Below is given the result of the Grand Prix race, which was one of the greatest of its name. The winners of the first prizes in the Vanderbilt Cup and Grand Prix, De Palma and Pullen, received the cups on Saturday night, February 28, at a banquet at the Athletic Club, Los Angeles.

Best Lap
No. 4—Mercer, Edwin Pullen, first. Total elapsed time, 5:13:45.
No. 17—Marmon, Guy Ball, second. Total elapsed time, 5:53:23.
No. 6—Alec, B. Taylor, third. Total elapsed time, 6:08:29.
No. 12—Mercedes, R. De Palma, fourth. Total elapsed time, 6:09:38. Average speed, 65.5 miles an hour.
No. 9—Mercer, H. Gordon, fifth. Flagged at end of thirty-seventh lap.
The one best lap of the race was by Tetzlaff in 5:49, or at the rate of $6.6 miles an hour.

AMERICAN-BUILT CAR WON GRAND PRIX TROPHY
The winning of the Grand Prix race by a Mercer, driven by Edwin Pullen of Trenton, N. J., gave for the first time in motor car history, the Grand Prix trophy to an American-built car. The Mercer also holds the honor of being the car in which Bruce Brown's record of 74.45 miles an hour, made in a Fiat two years ago at Savannah, was broken, Pullen's time being 77.2 miles per hour average in the Grand Prix.
